OSPREY GREETING

BY INTERIM PRINCIPAL OSBORNE

Hello Osprey Families! Thank you for your help in making our 135th day of school successful. We had 99% attendance!

Our students showed incredible gains in MAP math this week. MAP reading data indicates that reading at home each night will help improve scores. Our March Reading Challenge is a great time to start this. Encourage your child to continue to P.U.S.H. through and do their best in the last quarter. As always, good attendance is key to maximizing learning.

Leadership Roles at Home

Leadership roles don't just take place in the classroom!

Greeter Leader

Greet a neighbor (while social distancing) during a walk. Mail a note or card to a friend or relative to brighten their day. Create a sidewalk-chalk note of kindness for the neighborhood.

Meal Monitor

Help set the table, clear the table after a meal is over, or do the dishes. Older leaders can even make their own lunch and clean up after themselves.

Materials Manager

Help take care of the home and the materials inside. Make the bed, vacuum or sweep, put away toys, put away laundry, or wash the car. Clean up messes made from projects, games, or play-time activities.

Morning Announcer

Greet someone at home with a hug and tell them why they inspire you. Write them a note or draw them a picture that will sprinkle them with kindness.

Buddy-Watch Captain

Help watch a younger sibling or play independently when it is important for a parent to accomplish a task. Connect virtually with a friend or family member that is feeling lonely or needs a pick up.

Information Officer

Report on the weather to the family and draw a picture of the weather that day with the date. Make a note of something fun or something that challenged you during the day and share with your family at dinnertime.

The [Family Name] Pony

Get the mail or take a letter to the mailbox. Run "errands" around the house for a parent or caregiver—for example, put away groceries or get the laundry basket from another room.

Develop your own ideas!

What leadership roles does our family need to love each other and live harmoniously?
